He was plowing in a field and a heavy thunderstorm came up. He took shelter under a tree which was struck by lightning, killing him and his horses. His four sons were given leave of absence from the army to attend their father's funeral and they escaped the Battle.

Notes for Levi Conover:

Biography, 1882 (edited): Among the sturdy pioneers who converted the wild prairie into productive farms, and built up the little commonwealth of Cass County, was the lamented Levi Conover. Levi was born Jan. 14, 1808; his brother, Peter, in the year 1825, came to Illinois, and entered the Gilmore farm, two miles south of Princeton, then in Sangamon, now in Morgan County. In 1827 he sold his first purchase, and entered 240 acres just east of the Jeff Crum farm, in this county, where he remained until 1860. He then moved to Macon County, this State, where he still lives, at the advanced age of seventy-eight years. In the year 1832, the subject of this sketch, and his sister Matilda, with her husband, Asa B. Lane, came to Illinois. He was then twenty-two years of age. His outfit upon leaving Kentucky consisted of a good horse, a fine mare and colt, and a small amount of money. After having traveled three days, he awoke one morning to find that his mare and colt had been stolen, and a week was spent by the entire party in a fruitless search for the missing property. On reaching Illinois with one horse, his money was all spent, and he was in debt to his brother Peter and Mr. Lane. Thus, one of Cass County's most successful pioneers commenced his career without means, except that most valuable capital, health, honesty, industry and economy. He purchased another horse of his brother Peter, for $35, paying for the same by splitting rails at fifty cents per hundred. After paying this debt he continued rail splitting until he had accumulated $105 in silver. This he loaned to a man who moved to Iowa, and he never collected a cent of the debt. In the spring of 1834, he went to Galena and worked in the lead mines at Mineral Point, until fall, when he returned and emigrated to Iowa. There he bought a claim for $75, and divided it with a friend. They returned to Illinois, purchased oxen and wagons, and then returned to Iowa, and spent the next summer breaking in and improving their farms. During the spring of 1835, he, Mr. Conover, built for himself a substantial hewed log house, 16x18, a smoke-house, and a stable. Unable to obtain plank, a quilt was hung up at the opening left for a door, to keep the wolves out. Finally the door and floor were made of puncheon. In November, 1836, he married Miss Elizabeth Petefish, of Cass County, sister of S.H. and Jacob Petefish, and they soon after proceeded to their Iowa home. They returned to Illinois in August, 1837, on a visit. Mr. Conover returned to Iowa after a two weeks stay, leaving his wife to complete her visit. She was soon taken sick and died the latter part of that same month. So imperfect were the mail facilities at that time, that he did not learn of her death until two weeks after her burial. This sore bereavement unsettled his plans, and he sold his claim of 560 acres for $3,000 in silver, with which he returned to Cass County, and loaned it to his friends, Jacob Epler, Capt. Charles Beggs, and J. Bradley Thompson. In January, 1841, he purchased the old homestead of the family, from his cousin John, son of Peter Conover, which was settled in 1822. His experience on first settling in this country was not unlike that of many of the energetic and resolute class of men who were the pioneers of the West, and to whom the public are indebted for the orderly and intelligent character of the society we now enjoy. His second marriage was to Miss Phebe A. Rosenberger, who with three children, George, Charles W., and Ellen, now survives him. Mrs. Conover's father, John Rosenberger, and her mother, were both of German parentage, and came to Illinois and settled at Princeton, in 1836. They raised a large family, of which Phebe A., was the oldest. [(History of Cass County, Illinois, ed. William Henry Perrin. O. L. Baskin & Co. Notes for Levi Conover:

Obituary: Levi Conover was born in Cass County, Ill., June 8, 1828. Living on a farm, in childhood was a living picture of The Barefooted Boy with Cheeks of Tan.

In youth he enjoyed all the pleasures and bore all the privations of a country boy of that time. Just as he arrived at the age of manhood, the cry of gold came from the then far west. The excitement was even more than at present toward the great Klondike field. The general cry was then westward, go west. So in 1849 he, in company with others, started for California. Transportation was not then in a Pullman sleepers, but the great American Desert and mountain passes were crossed by ox teams. These journeys were very tedious, full of hardships, dangers and exposure. But Providence seemed to smile upon this little company, and they all safely reached their desired destination. He spent four years in this delightful climate, which has since become so famous. The ties of the old home called him back. He returned to Illinois in the fall of 1853. The following year he came to Iowa, where he purchased the farm upon which he has since lived, and where he died. March 1, 1855, he married Mary E. Mathews, of Cass County, Ill. Their lot was the common one of the pioneers. The luxuries of life were unthought of, and necessities and comforts obtained by hard labor. Homes in Jasper County, in the "50"s were found with great difficulties and disadvantages. He felled and hewed the forest trees; and in accordance to the times, he split one by one the rails to improve his farm. Like many others of the pioneers, the trueness and exactness of the use of the axe were remarkable. Under his hand the prairie became a tillable and productive farm. Living on God's broad acres, his soul expanded and lived, so in the winter of 1867 he professed faith in Christ, and joined the M. P. Church, in which he has since been an official member and one of its pillars. He was in usual health until the morning of Jan. 23, when he was partially paralyzed. His suffering was intense, but the faith, which bore him through life, did not forsake him then. Jan. 28, at 8:30 o'clock, the summons came in the form of a cerebral hemorrhage, Come up higher, it is enough. His wife had preceded him 16 years before, to that Heavenly Country. Three sons and four daughters mourn the loss of a father. All but one were with him in his last sickness to minister and care for him. Jan. 30, the funeral services were held at his home, conducted by Rev. Jas. Kirkwood. His text was Job 14:10 But man dieth and wasteth away, yea, man giveth up the ghost, and where is he? Especially dwelling upon, Where is he?, not in that casket but with Jesus. Being a religious person did not interfere with being prosperous in business; for a religious life demanded an active life. All were human and made mistakes by which other should profit. The deceased was at Class Meeting two weeks ago and testified of his hope of Heaven. His life had not been a failure in the spiritual realm, and in the material was quite a success. He was of a reserved disposition, very determined, full of perseverance and endurance, which was the key of his success in business. He was always ready to help financially in every good word and work. The needy were never turned from his door empty handed. His word was considered as good as his note. He was respected by all and loved by many. The great concourse of people, which followed his remains to the cemetery showed the great esteem with which he was regarded as a citizen, a neighbor and a friend (The Newton Record, Feb 3, 1898). In 1855, he moved to Eureka, Woodford Co., IL where he was an elder of the church and a trustee of Eureka College. In July of 1868, he moved to Pleasant Hill, Cass Co., MO. Soon after this event, the town of Peculiar, MO was formed about two miles from his farm. He preached for five years at the church in Peculiar, returning to Morgan Co., IL in November of 1873 where he enjoyed a life of retirement while still occasionally preaching at the church in Concord, of which he was an elder. In Memoriam.-- Mr. John Conover was born in Adair county, Ky., June 1st, 1809. Was married to Miss Sallie Rogers October 24th, 1833, died Nov. 14, 1893. He was 84 years old last June. Five children were born from this union; four sons and one daughter. Three sons and one daughter still survive, and one son and mother have gone on before him. The son was killed on the battlefield of Shiloh at the post of duty. The wife has been dead about 11 years. There are also 24 living grandchildren and 29 great grandchildren. He had been a member of the Baptist church for more than sixty years. He was a faithful, devoted and zealous Christian, and lived to see all his living children converted, and a goodly number of his grandchildren, most all of whom are members of the Baptist church. He was conscientious in the discharge of his duties in the varied relations of life. He was anxious for the conversion of everybody, and was a faithful worker in protracted meetings, both in word and prayer. He resided in Adair county all his life and was a good citizen, an ardent friend, kind husband, devoted father, and faithful Christian. In his last illness he did not talk much about death or the future, but was interested in the Church of which he was a member, and urged the brethren to secure a preacher. When he heard of the meeting at Liberty, where he had spent a week last fall in a meeting conducted by Bro. Wright, and made many warm friends, he requested that a dispatch be sent to the meeting to say he was almost dead. He died as he lived, a faithful Christian. His character and devoted Christian life is a living monument to his memory, and will still live on after him. "Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord; yea sayeth the spirit, they shall rest from their labors and their works do follow them." Bro. Breeding made an appropriate talk at the home of the departed, where a host of friends and relatives gathered to take a last look at the departed in this world. The writer also assisted some in song and word in the services. His favorite song was "Savior more than life to me." The last verse of which is, "Let me love thee more and more Till this fleeting, fleeting life is o're, Till my soul is lost in love, In a brighter, brighter world above." "Every day, every hour, Let me feel thy cleansing power, May thy tender love to me, Bind me closer, closer Lord to Thee." -Z.T.W. [from an old Adair County News clipping]

Tribute to a Good Man: Mr. J.K.P. Conover's death, which occurred at the home of his son, Jo Z. Conover, Monday night of last week, was not known at this office Tuesday morning until a few minutes before the News went to press, hence only mention of his demise was made. Mr. Conover was born and reared in about one and one-half miles South of Columbia, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Conover. He grew to manhood on his father's farm, and when the civil war broke out he espoused the cause of the Union, entered the Federal army, making a gallant soldier until he received his discharge. In battle he was wounded in one of his thighs, and the wound had not thoroughly healed when he returned home. As soon as he was able, he resumed farming. A short time after the war he was married to Miss Dorinda Taylor, a sister of Dr. S.A. Taylor, Joppa, this county. He later bought a farm in the neighborhood where he married, and on this plantation is where his children were reared. His wife died in Columbia while her husband was Jailer of the county, and the children who survive him are Flavious, S.R., Dr. P.H. of Elizabethtown, and Jo Z. Conover, and one daughter, Mrs. N.H. Moss, of Gradyville. There are also a number of grandchildren and one brother, Mr. S.B. Conover, who lives a short distance from this place. The deceased was a member of the Christian Church, and his walk through life was marked for good citizenship and Christian character. As a soldier he was fearless and obedient to those in command. There are about six of his comrades yet living in Adair county and they all speak of him in the highest terms. He was a most accommodating neighbor, at all times ready to do his bit for charity, and it is said he never turned a friend aside who asked for a favor at his hands. He served this county eight years as Jailer, making a very efficient officer. Funeral services were held at Pleasant Hill, Wednesday forenoon, conducted by Eld. Z.T. Williams, assisted by Eld. F.J. Barger. Many relatives and friends were present to pay their last respects to one who had been honest in all his dealings and who had lived a Christian life from early manhood to a ripe old age, being about seventy-five years old. To the surviving sons and daughter, The News extends its profoundest sympathy. His body rests in Pleasant Hill cemetery, and his spirit has returned to the God who gave it. Notes for Stephen Rogers Conover:

Last Monday afternoon about 4 o'clock, Mr. Stephen R. Conover, one of Adair county's best citizens, died at his late home a short distance southeast of Columbia. The deceased was born and reared in the neighborhood where he died and was about seventy five years old. From youth to old age he had been a quiet, peaceful citizen, enjoying the respect of every one who knew of his manner of living. The passing of the deceased leaves only one living member of that family of Conover, Mrs. Felix Royse, who is quite an old lady. The deceased reared a large family of sons and daughters, Mr. Jo N. Conover of this place being one of the number. In early manhood Mr. Conover professed his faith in Christ, united with the Baptist Church, living a consistent member until his death. The funeral services will be held this Tuesday afternoon at his late home and the interment will be in the family burying ground. Peace to his memory, sympathy for the surviving wife and children. Notes for John A. Harden:

Wakenda is a ghost town in Carroll County, Missouri. It is located on Missouri Supplemental Route B about eight miles southeast of Carrollton. The community was founded in 1869 and is named after the Siouan name for Gods River on account of abundance of game on its banks and fish in the stream. It was originally proposed as the potential county seat, although Carrollton was eventually selected. The community was destroyed in the summer of 1993 during the Great Missouri River Flood. It was flooded again in 1995, but the school and a few buildings remained until struck by a tornado. A simple stone marker alongside Route B honors the missing town. There is still currently a grain elevator for the local grain growers and a household of three. There is also a small auto repair shop and the remnants of the old city jail house.

To this union seven children were born, two of whom preceeded him to the grave. He also had 35 grandchildren and 27 great grandchildren. In the 1882 he moved from Kentucky to Missouri, and settled on a farm three miles southeast of Wakenda. In 1882 he united with the Church of Christ and lived a faithful christian life. At the outbreak of the Civil war he enlisted in the 13th Kentucky Infantry and served three years. Deceased was a good citizen, a devoted husband, and a kind and loving father. Funeral services were held Saturday at the Walnut Grove school house, conducted by Rev. W. S. Gray, at the close of which the body was laid to rest in the cemetery near by. To the bereaved ..."

Title: Judge¹¹²

Notes for Napoleon Hartfield Moss:

From the 1907 Adair paper... The pall of death now o'ershadows the little city of Gradyville and this entire county as it never did before. On Friday night of last week about 9 o'clock a terrific rain began falling there and a short time afterward almost the entire town was swept away by the flood drowning twenty persons and destroying homes and property to the extent of many thousand dollars for the people of Gradyville and those for many miles up and down the creeks. Several branches of the stream called Big Creek run through Gradyville and it wrought sad havoc with almost everything it touched. The electrical storm which accompanied the cloudburst burned out telephones which closed them in completely leaving them to suffer alone until next morning when the sad news could reach Columbia and other neighboring towns and aid could be sent. It was soon sent them and from then on they have been surrounded by hundreds of willing hands, loving hearts and generous purses. The list of the dead is as follows: Mrs. Cal Wilmore, Mrs. Ada Williams and little daughter, Mary Beauchamp; Mrs. Mary Moss; Mrs. Hartfield Moss and five children, viz: Pearl, aged 16; Carrie, aged 10; Dewey, aged 8; Irene, aged 6; and Alfred Lee, age 4; Mrs. J.W. Keltner. (Carter Burying Grounds); Miss Venia Moss. (In Old Pleasant Ridge Cemetery.); Mrs. Lum Hill and her eighteen month old baby, Henry Raymond; Mrs. L.C. Nell and four children, viz: James Weeden, aged 15; Allen, aged 11; George, aged 5, and Hallie, aged 18 months. (In Union Cemetery.); Paul Wilson. Mr. Hartfield Moss mourns the loss of his mother, his wife and five children. He and two daughters, Ora and Mallie were away from home at the time. Only a few days before they had left a beautiful home and everything that made life worth living, to return to find nothing but desolation and death. Not even a bit of the foundation of his home remains to mark the place where it once stood.

Notes for Wayman Alexander St.Clair:

On 27 February 1878 Wayman Sinclair received a presidential Pardon from Rutherford B. Hayes for "illicit distilling". He was a miller and the neighbors asked for him to be released. He was first allowed to be home during the week and go to prison on weekends, but then he was given the pardon. He had walked from his home near Plum Point, Adair County, Kentucky to the prison in Hodgenville for some time before that. This pardon was in the hands of Docia Mae Scaggs the last time I heard about it. According to a story told by Anne Sinclair Crabtree to the family, her father was caught because when the revenueurs came to check the mill, geese were getting drunk drinking from a stream on the property. When the men followed the stream they found the Sinclair still. NOTE: Carolyn Crabtree Wayman Sinclair's birthday on the tombstone is wrong according to the information in the Family Bible. The name St. Clair was also used by part of the family. Because of this the names of the parents on the tombstones is spelled differently for both. The reason that I was given was that some members of the family changed their last name after the Sinclair Oil scandal. One side of the family purchase the tombstone for Wayman Sinclair and had the name Sinclair engraved on it. When the mother died the family who used the name St. Clair had the name St. Clair put on her tombstone. Their graves were moved to Green River Memorial Church from Lone Valley Cemetery when the lake was built.

Wayman's Death Certificate gives his birth date as 22 May 1848 in Adair County, Kentucky. His father's name was given as William Sinclair but this is an error. The informant on the Death Certificate was R. E. Sinclair, Elkhorn, Kentucky. Wayman was buried first at Lone Valley on 23 May 1913.

Wayman Sinclair enlisted into the Civil War in Columbia, Adair County, Kentucky on 15 March 1865. He was mustered into Company D, Kentucky South Cumberland Infantry Battalion on 4 May 1865 and mustered out on 23 October 1865 at Columbia, Kentucky. [Report of the Adjutant General of the State of Kentucky] [June 1890 Veterans Schedule, Cane Valley, Adair County, Kentucky, p.2]

On the 1900 Taylor County, Kentucky Census the birth date for Wayman Sinclair was December 1948. He and Mary had been married 25 years and she had given birth to eleven children, all still living in June 1900. His father was born in Virginia and his mother in Kentucky. [1900 Taylor County, Kentucky Census, HH#22-25, enumerated 2 June 1900, Ireland Community, p.2A.]

Notes for Edward Lee Crabtree:

While I was talking to Annie Sinclair Crabtree she told me the story that Edward Lee was born just before the 1910 census taker came to the house. The family had not given Edward a name yet, so the census taker gave him a name Leonard B. Crabtree just for the record. The couple gave him the name Edward Lee afterwards. [Carolyn Crabtree]

Edward L. Crabtree, 70, 330 High Street, longtime Main Street businessman, part-time farmer and civic leader, died Wednesday at 11:25 p.m. at Taylor County Hospital. Remembered by his friends as hard working, kind and considerate, Crabtree leaves behind many years of service to his work - 42 years at Firestone - and to civic and church groups. "He's one of the most likable men you'd ever want to meet," offered one of his fellow downtown merchants. He was a member of the board of directors of First Federal for 34 years and was serving as chairman of the board at the time of his death. He was a member of Rotary for 31 years and will be remembered for his many years as Scoutmaster of Troop 138 at the First United Methodist Church. He was also a member of the administrative board of the Methodist Church. As a Rotarian, Crabtree was recipient of one of the most cherished Rotary honors - that of a Paul Harris Sustaining Member. His local club donated $1,000 in his name to the Rotary Foundation. He was recently raised to the 50 percent level on the Paul Harris Fellowship. The fellowship is expected to be brought to the 100 percent level in the next few months. Along with the Rotary, Crabtree was one of the rescue squad's most ardent supporters. He was helpful in gaining community support for the "Jaws of Life." "He was a tremendous supporter of the rescue squad from the very beginning," commented squad commander Charlie Shaw. "He donated much of his time and money." He was the son of the late Wilbur R. and Annie Sinclair Crabtree and was born in Taylor County on April 10, 1910. He is survived by his wife, Catherine Gregory Crabtree; two sons, Donald K., Campbellsville, and Greg, Versailles; two sisters, Margaret Pruett, Campbellsville, Dixie Albright, Lake Park, Fla.; one brother, Robert Crabtree, Lexington; 10 grandchildren, 3 great-grandchildren, several nieces and nephews. Funeral service was Friday at 2 p.m. Dr. Charles Music and the Rev. Joe Humble officiating. Burial was in Brookside Cemetery. Honorary pallbearers were members of the Campbellsville Rotary Club, the Men's Bible Class of the First United Methodist Church, and the board of directors of First Federal Savings & Loan Association. Pallbearers were Phil Allan Bertram, Dale Miller, Jack Wright, Jimmy Whitlock, Richard Sublett and Doug Allen. [Central Kentucky News-Journal, January 19, 1981]

Notes for Barbara Carolyn Bost:

Because the Campbellsville Baptist Church burned in 1963, Carolyn and Greg were married in the First United Methodist Church by Dr. Chester Badgett, pastor of Campbellsville Baptist Church, where Carolyn attended. Assisting the marriage was the pastor of the United Methodist Church.

In 1968 Greg and I bought a house in Sycamore Estates in Woodford County, Kentucky from a couple named Barry and Pru Kockler. We lived there for 17 years. The house was less than a year old when we bought it and it was a wonderful house. Barry was going to Statesville, NC to work for a new company called Armoloy. He was wanting investors in the company and was heading to North Carolina from Kentucky. He later ended up in Texas. I told them to talk to Mickey and Carole Middleworth and be sure to meet them since Mickey's wife was my cousin and they could help them get settled in Statesville, Mickey got interested in the Armoloy Company and invested with them.
