He was buried in Taylor County, Kentucky (Lone Valley Cemetery moved to Green River Memorial Church when Green River Lake was built)⁹¹. He was affiliated with the helped establish Lone Valley Baptist Church religion in Taylor County, Kentucky⁹⁴.

Notes for Wayman Alexander St.Claire:

On 27 February 1878 Wayman Sinclair received a presidential Pardon from Rutherford B. Hayes for "illicit distilling". He was a miller and the neighbors asked for him to be released. He was first allowed to be home during the week and go to prison on weekends, but then he was given the pardon. He had walked from his home near Plum Point, Adair County, Kentucky to the prison in Hodgenville for some time before that. This pardon was in the hands of Docia Mae Scaggs the last time I heard about it. According to a story told by Anne Sinclair Crabtree to the family, her father was caught because when the revenuers came to check the mill, geese were getting drunk drinking from a stream on the property. When the men followed the stream they found the Sinclair still. NOTE: Carolyn Crabtree Wayman Sinclair's birthday on the tombstone is wrong according to the information in the Family Bible. The name St. Clair was also used by part of the family. Because of this the names of the parents on the tombstones is spelled differently for both. The reason that I was given was that some members of the family changed their last name after the Sinclair Oil scandal. One side of the family purchase the tombstone for Wayman Sinclair and had the name Sinclair engraved on it. When the mother died the family who used the name St. Clair had the name St. Clair put on her tombstone. Their graves were moved to Green River Memorial Church from Lone Valley Cemetery when the lake was built.

Wayman's Death Certificate gives his birth date as 22 May 1848 in Adair County, Kentucky. His father's name was given as William Sinclair but this is an error. The informant on the Death Certificate was R. E. Sinclair, Elkhorn, Kentucky. Wayman was buried first at Lone Valley on 23 May 1913.

Wayman Sinclair enlisted into the Civil War in Columbia, Adair County, Kentucky on 15 March 1865. He was mustered into Company D, Kentucky South Cumberland Infantry Battalion on 4 May 1865 and mustered out on 23 October 1865 at Columbia, Kentucky. [Report of the Adjutant General of the State of Kentucky] [June 1890 Veterans Schedule, Cane Valley, Adair County, Kentucky, p.2]

On the 1900 Taylor County, Kentucky Census the birth date for Wayman Sinclair was December

1948. He and Mary had been married 25 years and she had given birth to eleven children, all still living in June 1900. His father was born in Virginia and his mother in Kentucky. [1900 Taylor County, Kentucky Census, HH#22-25, enumerated 2 June 1900, Ireland Community, p.2A.]

Mary Elizabeth Harden was counted in the census on 15 Jun 1860 in Adair County, Kentucky (Division 2; age 2⁵⁷). She was counted in the census on 10 Sep 1870 in Neatsville, Adair County, Kentucky¹⁵⁷. She was buried in Taylor County, Kentucky (Lone Valley (Cemetery moved to Green River Memorial Church when Green River Lake was built)^{91, 158}).

Notes for Mary Elizabeth Harden:

On the 1900 Taylor County, Kentucky Census Mary Harden Sinclair's birth date was given as February 1861. Her father and mother were both born in Kentucky. [1900 Taylor County, Kentucky Census, HH#22-25, enumerated 2 June 1900, Ireland Community, p.2A.]

Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Sinclair, 75 years old, died at 11:55 o'clock Tuesday night [January 10, 1933] at the home of her daughter, Mrs. D.M. Skaggs, in the county following a long illness. Mrs. Sinclair was born February 22, 1858 in this county. She was married to the late Waymen Sinclair early in life, who preceded her to the grave 20 years ago. Deceased was a member of the Baptist church for many years and was a consistent church worker. She lived a faithful life and was well liked by all she came in contact with. Crabtree, of this city; 5 sons, Robert Sinclair and Hershel Sinclair, of this county, J.W.
